OUR TOWN

By J. B. WHITE

This column has been published for five years without the name of its editor. Many times he has been asked about the authorship of comment appearing here and in order that the future may have no inquiry to make concerning the responsibility for this column the name of the editor has been placed at its head. Modestly we claim for this column a wide patronage. Many read it who do not agree with its policy, while still many more read it who do agree. Some have been severe in their criticism and under such circumstances we desire all to know who is responsible. We sincerely appreciate the many favorable comments which we desire to acknowledge at this time.

Editor Cooke of the Rockdale Reporter suggests a way for this editor to get more out of life. He says that golf and other recreations with less serious thought to politics. The country, he says can be saved as well on the golf links as writing political editorials. No doubt little is to be gained by studious application to the principles of party loyalty so far as general appreciation is concerned. Political editorials seem still to be a necessary contribution to salvation. The Reporter editor may have found a new Fourth Estate theology, who can tell? If the esteemed Reporter will assume, along with other country newspapers, part of the responsibility for party success through support of its nominees, a duty falling largely upon The Herald in the past few years, this humble editor would have an opportunity to cool his fever on the links.

Increased attention by the public utilities companies handling public water supplies to the needs of greater efficient and sanitation gives encouragement for the future of better and more safe methods of transmitting it to customers. While the water companies have shown a commendable attitude toward meeting and solving all questions of sanitation in accordance with public health codes, there has been an appreciable interest on the part of the public due largely to the education of health authorities in co-operation with the utilities.

No more vital or necessary utility than the water supply. It is to be safeguarded by the most rigid methods of sanitation as well as dispensing at all times. This column wishes to congratulate the Texas Water Utilities on the manner in which the supply for Cameron is being handled. Every possible advantage is being taken of modern methods to make the supply sanitary and healthful. This column has good reasons to believe that within a short time other and far reaching improvements in the method of handling will be undertaken in line with the policy of service carried out by this utilities corporation recently merged with the holdings of other water properties in the State.

In 1921 by agreement with the then existing corporation improvements were made in the handling of this supply. The settlement reached at that time was criticised by this journal as inadequate in terms of better sanitation, although it was admitted in all fairness that a great improvement was made over the old system. This journal advocated a filtration plant. The sedimentation system as we now have, was in our opinion not adequate of entirely satisfactory. In this opinion we had the concurrence of the state board of health. The system now in operation is as good as can be had of its kind.

We are greatly encouraged by the prospect of betterment. Filtration is the only absolute sanitary method of handling the public water supply obtained from river flows and rainfall basins as is the case of Cameron and many other Texas cities. Sedimentation with proper chemical treatment will kill all germs of harmful nature in the water supply but it cannot remove the dead matter thus killed by the treatment. Filtration removes all unclean matter from the water and when proper chemicals are used after filtration the supply is made 100 per cent pure.

No greater contribution could be made to the welfare of the city than the installation of a filtering plant for the public water supply. Increased public appreciation for better water and more sanitary methods is being met everywhere by the utilities companies and in Cameron, we are glad to say, no exception is found. The Texas Water Utilities is to be congratulated on its desire to make adequate all sanitary methods for handling the public water.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rich of Sharp were in Cameron Sunday visiting their son, Albert Jr., who is in the Cameron hospital.

SMITH SPEECH IS PROGRESSIVE, HUMAN, STAND

Democratic Nominee Pledges Self to Administration for Benefit of All the People.

AGRICULTURAL PROBLEM TO GET PROMPT ACTION

Will Enforce Dry Law, Stamp Out Corruption and Recommend Changes to Congress—Promises Honest Tariff.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Before an immense throng which gathered to hear his first pronouncement on the issues of the Presidential campaign, Governor Alfred E. Smith accepted the Democratic nomination for President here tonight in an address which was as progressive in character as it was courageous in its terms.

Governor Smith pledged himself and his party to the restoration of honesty in government; to the promotion of a real prosperity for the whole people through actual rather than fancied economies and reorganization in government and the enactment of sound tariff legislation; to the establishment of a foreign policy opposed to unwarranted intervention in Latin-American countries and for the outlawry of war; and to the stamping out of corruption in prohibition enforcement.

The Democratic candidate placed himself squarely on record for farm relief and promised to call together the best informed minds among farmers, business men and economists immediately following the election to devise a practicable plan for the control of surplus crops for submission to Congress at the beginning of his administration.

"Upon the steps of this Capitol where twenty-five years ago I first came into the service of the state, I receive my party's summons to lead it in the nation," said Governor Smith in accepting his party's call. "Within this building I learned the principles, the purposes and the functions of government and to know that the greatest privilege that can come to any man is to give himself to a nation which has reared him and raised him from obscurity to be a contender for the highest office in the gift of its people."

"With a gratitude too strong for words and with humble reliance upon the aid of Divine Providence, I accept your summons to a wider field of activity."

He sounded the keynote of his entire address when he said:

Constructive Government

"Government should be constructive, not destructive; progressive, not reactionary."

"I am entirely unwilling to accept the old order of things as the best unless and until I become convinced that it cannot be made better," he continued.

"It is our new world theory that government exists for the people as against the old world conception that the people exist for the government," he said.

The candidate reaffirmed his belief in the soundness of "deliberate action of an informed electorate." He referred to the public issues he carried to the voters in New York State and added:

"That direct contact with the people I propose to continue in this campaign and, if I am elected, in the conduct of the nation's affairs."

He said he would strive to make the nation's policy a reflection of the nation's ideals, Cleveland's phrase. "Public office is a public trust," now takes on new meaning, he said.

"The Republican party today stands responsible for the widespread dishonesty that has honeycombed its administration," Governor Smith asserted. The Governor attacked the claim of Republican prosperity.

"The Republican party builds its case upon a myth," he said.

Four million men out of work, whole industries prostrate and widespread business discontent do not spell prosperity, he continued.

"Prosperity to the extent that we have it is unduly concentrated and has not equitably touched the lives of the farmer, the wage-earner and the individual business man," said Governor Smith.

Republican leaders have tried to divert attention from the real situation by a propaganda of governmental economy, he asserted.

The Republican party promised reorganization of the government, he said, yet after seven years the structure is worse than it was in 1921.

Governor Smith pointed to the increase in federal appropriations, against which, he said, the official spokesman answers only, "We have given an economical administration."

"I assert that there is no proof," Governor Smith declared.

After giving a summary of the government finances, he pointed out that as against the claim of tax reductions there were actually $2,000,000,000 more

4000 BALES COTTON RECEIVED FROM CROP OF 1928 AT NOON

Up to noon Thursday the compress reported receipt of 4000 bales of new crop cotton ginned and marketed here. This figure is below the number received to date last year, but indicates a steady movement of the crop. Fast selling by the farmers has caused the market to decline. Buyers in Cameron are paying the best prices in this section and Cameron is always the best market for cotton.

TOM CONNALLY VICTOR IN MILAM COUNTY

MARLIN CONGRESSMAN MAJORITY NEAR THREE TO ONE SATURDAY

Tom Connally won almost a three to one victory over Earle Mayfield in Milam county on Saturday August 25. Barry Miller led the ticket. The name of Thomas B. Love appeared on the ballot. He received 389 votes while Barry Miller received 1921, more than six to one majority.

Friends of Earl Mayfield did not go to the polls in the numbers anticipated here. He received only 124 votes at Cameron, over one hundred less than was polled for him in the primary of July 28.

S. M. N. Marrs and J. T. Robinson led the ticket in Milam county over their opponents by big majorities.

The following is the total vote:

For U. S. Senator: Tom Connally 1735 Earle B. Mayfield 697 For Lieut. Governor: Barry Miller 1921 Thomas B. Love 389 For State Superintendent: S. M. N. Marrs 1386 W. F. Garner 1037 For Land Commissioner: J. T. Robinson 1695 Otis Terrell 769

In the state contest Connally on the last count available was leading Mayfield by 55,000 votes and indications are his majority will reach 70,000 votes.

Style Show Yoe High School Friday, Sept. 7

Plans are being made to stage another Style Show in Cameron September 7th. Mrs. A. B. Guinn is supervising this and is already at work. The merchants are taking a great interest in their displays and the people of Cameron will witness an evening of beauty, along with comedy and good music. The style show stage here two years ago was a pronounced success but this one will be even bigger and better.

BIG TOP OFFERS COLORFUL SPECTACLE

AL. G. BARNES 5 RING CIRCUS HERE SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER FIRST

(By Harry Payne)
In the great white tents that will house the Al. G. Barnes Big 5 Ring Circus when it exhibits in Cameron on Saturday for two performances, a complex and colorful performance that supplies a variety of sensations will be offered. From simple things destined to appeal to childish imagination on up to thrilling stunts guaranteed to excite the most jaded nerves the show runs so fast always changing, that it just keeps the audience spellbound. High up in the air daring acrobats gable with death, depending on the swing of a trapeze or the sure grip of a partner to escape death, it's just Oh's and Ah's from start to finish.

It would take columns to describe in detail the many wonders that Mr. Al. G. Barnes is bringing to Cameron this year, amongst the many features are the aerial ballet with more than 100 pretty girls performing in mid air to the tune of tuneful music and gorgeous electrical effects. Some of the greatest equestrian stars of today are with the big circus, such well known artists as The Famous Davenport Family, Klinkhardt's Riding Midgets presenting the only midgets in the world doing a double bareback riding act. The Healy European tight wire artists. The Matlock Troupe, The Dancing Horses and Elephants, Captain Jimmy Myers and Herr Louis Roth, the greatest of wild animal trainers, and then the Zoo with its scores of cages containing jungle beasts from all over the globe, oh shucks, its just too much to tell—come and see for yourself. The circus grounds are located at the Mondrik Lots show grounds. Reserved seat grandstand chairs will be on sale circus day at the Palace of Sweets.

Mrs. R. Asberry and little daughter Laura Joe, of Cisco are the house guests of her mother, Mrs. Laura Gons and her sister, Mrs. L. Turner.

RESIGNATION OF KENNY TO CHURCH WITHDRAWN

PETITION OF MEMBERS LEADS PASTOR TO RE-CONSIDER PLANS TO LEAVE CHURCH

H. G. Kenney, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, has withdrawn his resignation addressed last week to the session of his church and will remain in Cameron.

The action of the pastor is based on what is said to be a practically unanimous petition of his members asking that he accept their endorsement and approval of his ministry. Opposition by members of his congregation, though in the minority but influential, it is said, led the pastor to consider giving up the work here.

The petition signed by more than a hundred members is a candid re-assertment of the attitude of those opposing the pastor, it is pointed out, and asks the session not to consider the resignation of the pastor. On receipt of this petition, copy of which was presented to Mr. Kenney he addressed a letter to the session withdrawing his resignation.

Mr. Kenney's action will be reassuring to the members of his congregation who have expressed a ringing endorsement of him, approving his 20th century application of Christian principles in a theology that relegates the worn out and non-applicable doctrines of the 17th century. Mr. Kenney is modern in his thought and his ministry here has been an index to the best thought of the age, his supporters point out.

It is said at the time of the circulation of this petition that applications from many not members of the congregation were made to sign it. Others classed as sinners and lost by orthodox theology, suggested a petition from the people at large who do not hold membership in or attend any church. This is mentioned, it is said, to show the popular esteem in which Mr. Kenney is held by the people here and who on hearing of his resignation expressed a desire that he re-consider and remain in Cameron.

No statement has been made by the pastor other than that he has withdrawn his resignation.

MILAM CALLED UPON FOR DEMOCRATIC FUND

ORGANIZATION FOR EVERY PRECINCT IS PLAN OF FINANCE CHAIRMAN HERE

Funds for the election of Governor Smith to the Presidency and for the National Democratic campaign are solicited from the democrats of Milam county in the appointment of Giles L. Avriett as chairman for the county.

It is said that work will begin at once to organize a vigorous campaign for this county with the appointment of sub-chairman in every voting precinct in the county.

All contributions will be sent to John H. Kirby at Houston and from there forwarded to New York in their original form. Mr. Kirby is chairman for the finance campaign in Texas. It is urged that democrats contribute and all donations large or small will be appreciated.

Names of the contributors from time to time will be published in the newspapers of Milam County.

It is pointed out that immediate response is desirable as it should not be necessary for the committee to call on the democrats personally.

CHEESE FACTORY FOR CAMERON IS ASSURED

C. W. LAWRENCE GUARANTEES 70 PER CENT OF STOCK FOR CORPORATION

Construction of a cheese factory in Cameron was practically assured Monday night when C. W. Lawrence, president of the Cameron Ice and Cold Storage Company, offered to take seventy per cent of the stock if the Commercial Club would raise the other thirty per cent. The club accepted Mr. Lawrence's proposition and appointed a committee to sell the stock composed of Geo. T. Graves, F. E. Jackson and W. M. Cobb.

Mr. Lawrence specified that one thousand dollars of the stock should be sold to farmers or people who will sell milk in 850 shares. The balance could be taken by business men.

Mr. Lawrence is already in touch with an experienced man to have charge of the cheese making and he expects the stock to be sold by October 1, and the company in operation by October 15.

Mr. Lawrence's proposition was presented by S. M. Burns who has been quite active in the movement to establish a cheese factory in Cameron, similar to the one in Roundrock.

Mr. Lawrence has room in his building, where light plant was moved out, so none of the capital stock need be invested in a building. The location is considered ideal. The rent will be low.

The formation of a Jersey Cattle Club to encourage the distribution of registered Jersey Cows, was suggested by W. H. Shipp and a committee was appointed to develop the idea, composed of W. H. Shipp, Frank Leavinsky and B.V. Shirley.

25 YEARS AGO

Last Friday afternoon the young ladies of Cameron organized a J. U. G. Club composed of our leading young ladies as follows: Misses Nora Hefley, Evalyne McLane, Ethel Lankford, Natalie and Lizzie McCord, Aetna Smith, Susie Pope, Lula May Hefley, Edna Sprinkle, Moe Kemp and Alfa Jeter. Miss Alfa Jeter president; Miss Mary Rogers secretary and Miss Edna Sprinkle, treasurer. The initial letters are said to stand for "Just Us Girls," and therefore has no connection with the club that Dr. Baird predicted would follow the inauguration of prohibition in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Adams are visiting friends in Williamson County.

Cashier T. F. Hardy paid Temple a visit last Friday to attend a visit to the Elks.

Mrs. A. N. Green returned Friday from a visit to her parents at Lott.

Justice D. R. Criswell of Buckholts was in Cameron on business last Saturday.

Miss Annie Laurie Lay returned last Friday from a very pleasant visit to Rockdale.

Mrs. J. E. Tyson who has been quite sick for several weeks is convalescent, leaving Monday morning with her husband for a sojourn of a few days at Rockport.

W. J. Henderson who farmed on the Fred Yoe place near Todd brought to Cameron the first bale of cotton last Thursday. It weighed 415 pounds and was ginned at Barron's Gin. Robert James circulated subscription premium list and $53.50 was subscribed as a bonus to be counted in the purchase price. In the afternoon it was auctioned off by Mayor Ralston and sold to H. M. Young for 25 1-4 cents per pound. It thus brought about 12 1-3 cents clear of the bonus or $51.28. The bale stood Mr. Henderson in hand $104.78 clear of the seed. This is perhaps the best deal that has ever been made with the first bale in Cameron. (The 1928 bale of cotton brought C. C. Black $240.00, $135.22 more than Mr. Henderson received).

Bob Smith and family of Little River were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Herman Schwarting.

WHO SAID LOST

When you reach into your pocket for your bunch of keys and all you find is a good sized hole and you suddenly think that you can't drive your car home because it is locked and the key is on the missing ring and you said a few forceful words under your breath—When you have visions of having to get new keys made for your car, the office, house, garage and a lot of other things and you decide this is about the worst luck you ever had and then you remember you've heard people say about The Herald's lost and found ads and you phone in one of your own—and the lost were found. So be it with all who know the value of want ads in The Cameron Herald.) Next day a little boy comes into your office. Well the story ends in peace and quiet—

For BUSINESS TRAVELERS This Bank Advises TRAVELERS CHEQUES

Business travelers, probably more than any other, are the victims of pickpockets and sneak thieves.

Because so much of their time is spent on trains among strangers—at unfrequented hotels in out-of-the-way places—and in strange cities and towns.

Their "roll" is not safe from theft, or even from loss, due to constantly moving about from place to place.

Even if the traveling man is armed with a check book, he is often faced with the embarrassment of having his check refused—or he is asked to identify himself in localities where he is not known.

To avoid all this annoyance for their men "on the road"—to eliminate the possibility of their being stranded without funds—many firms are supplying their men with Travelers Cheques.

These cheques are accepted everywhere. They are signed and countersigned by the man carrying them, which at all times establishes his identity. And should they be lost or stolen (if not previously countersigned or exchanged for value) their value is refunded.

Travelers Cheques can be procured at this Bank, either by the man contemplating a trip, or by his firm.

Texas and Texans

Politics and Roads

Political activities have not lessened interest in road building in Texas. Among the latest movements is the proposal for a $1,650,000 bond issue for roads in Brown county, fostered by an organization of young business men and a $750,000 bond issue in Montague county. Sections of the State that are without good roads are finding that they are being studiously avoided by both homeseekers and tourists. The first things investigated by persons seeking a new location are the character of the roads and the kinds of schools. If good roads and good schools are lacking the homeseekers pass on to more progressive sections.

Taylor Plans Studied

Taylor is taking time off from politics to make a close study of city planning. Taylor has awakened to the possibility of substantial growth, but its citizens are anxious to have the place improve in attractiveness along with its development in size. Towns that were started years ago on the hit-or-miss ways then so common in town building are trying to remedy their mistakes. It is but little more trouble or expense to build an attractive city than to allow one to grow up with no regard to beauty.

Unightly Entrances

The part of a house that makes the best and most lasting impression upon a visitor is likely to be the front entrance, or the first room entered. Real estate dealers have learned that it is hard to sell a house with an unattractive entrance. Why haven't those who are building cities and towns learned lessons? Usually the shabbiest shacks line the railroad tracks and often they are about all travellers can see in passing through a town. If I were starting on a campaign of civic planning and improvement, I would begin work at the railroad right-of-way.

Parks and Population

Interesting figures have recently been given out in regard to the relation of city park acreage to population. Fort Worth leads other Texas cities in park space per capita, with Dallas, Houston, Beaumont, Waco and Wichita Falls coming next in order. Brownwood, though much smaller than these cities ranks seventh, while Austin, the city most favored of all by nature, takes the seventeenth place in park acreage. A survey showing the attractiveness of park improvements as related to population would be of interest.

Marfa Coming Along

Judging from the news items in the Big Bend Sentinel, Marfa is a West Texas town that is coming right along and the front page of that paper for one week shows that a movement is on foot to pave 17 city blocks with Uvalde rock asphalt; that an oil company has leased 100,000 acres for development; that a State Scenic highway, with numerous parks, is being planned; that a big fair is in prospect and that a committee of Marfa citizens has been to San Saba to study how successful fairs are managed; that a full-time secretary has been employed for the Chamber of Commerce.

Turkey Trot Plans

Cuero is making strenuous efforts to redeem its first place as a "Turkey Trot" center, but will have to trot pretty fast to catch up with Brady, which took up the turkey trot idea a few years ago when Cuero dropped it. Visitors to the Cuero event are to be shown a model 25 acre turkey farm, where they may see for themselves how the work is carried on and may study the best arrangements for properly conducting the turkey business. A large acreage near the city has been purchased by an enterprising realtor to be subdivided into 25 acre plots for turkey raising. Brady has the next move.

Mercedes Shows Progress

Mercedes is putting some of the other Lower Rio Grande Valley towns on their tip-toes to keep up with its progress. A $150,000 bridge across the Rio Grande into Mexico, where over $300,000 is being spent in building up a Mexican "resort" town; a $40,000 country club house; parks, filled with native tropical trees and shrubs, lining both sides of the Rio Grande; a $250,000 hotel and business structure; a new $45,000 city hall; a $11,000 American Legion Hall; numerous other club houses; new school and church buildings; hard surfaced roads leading to all parts of the valley, and the "lowest city tax rate of any town in the valley," are the things which Mercedes has a right to boast.

Fort Worth Gas Rate

Fort Worth is having trouble over a proposition of the gas company to increase the rates to consumers. The gas company, it seems, lost its fight before the railroad commission for an increase in rates. The matter is now before a Federal tribunal, consisting of two districts and one circuit court judge, on application of the gas company. In the mean time the Federal court has been asked for an injunction restraining the city of Ft. Worth, the Texas Railroad Commission, and the Governor from enforcing the present rate schedule. Contests of this kind create sentiment favorable to municipal ownership of public utilities.

Headwork in Farming

J. E. Rogers, formerly a traveling salesman, started farming in Cottle county six years ago, and says that, by using his head along with his hands, he has made farming pay him a clear profit of $12,000, or $2000 a year above his living expenses. He started with two cows, three heifer calves, one pony and a yearling colt, no farm machinery, and about $100 in cash. He bought 320 acres of land, going in debt for all of it. The land is now clear of debt, the farm well stocked and equipped with machinery, and his four boys and one girl go to school, even through the cotton picking season. Mr. Rogers has no set formula for success, but has made his money selling cream and milk, chickens and eggs, hogs, cotton and the other things that can be produced on any Texas farm. He thinks that the farmer needs to exercise as much thought and energy as a salesman to make a success of his work.

Trucks Help Farmers

The Weatherford Democrat thinks that a large part of the success of Parker county farmers has been due to the use of trucks in marketing their products. The fruits and melons that grow to such perfection in that county are often hauled hundreds of miles in trucks in search of the best markets, whereas, when the railroad afforded the only transportation facilities, much of the farm products went to waste for lack of markets. If the farmer can't find a local market for what he grows he can load the produce on a truck and go until he finds a place that will buy it.

It strikes me there are two times when a man is apt to make a wrong move in a love affair—one is when he doesn't understand the girl and the other is when he does.

Even the poor moth has no chance these days when folks burn the candle at both ends.

A young fellow in our neighborhood says you can blame the men for most anything and everything but for goodness sakes don't blame 'em for hugging a girl against her will. That's just one of those things that don't happen at all, at all.

I note where 100 sticks of chewing gum are produced every year for each man, woman and child in this country and I venture to say that about one-half of them can be found under the tables in confectioneries, church pews, etc.

Since Leap year is about over it surprises me that some of these statisticians haven't tabulated the number of boys who have had to walk home from motor car rides.

It strikes me that if you want to know how some girls will turn out, that you observe when they turn in

I got a letter the other day that gave me a thrill. A man in one of the towns nearby was reading my column while walking down the street. He stopped to cackle at something I said that he thought was funny and just then a few feet ahead of him, a large plate glass window in a building crashed to the sidewalk, breaking into hundreds of pieces. He wrote me a letter thanking me.

I note our old friend over at Emporia, Kansas,—William Allen White, states that the issue is now very clearly gone. He says that Smith deserves the vote of those who believe that the theory and practice of prohibition is wrong. Hoover deserves the vote of those who believe the theory and practice of prohibition is right. That's all there is to the campaign. We have a hunch that William Allen White may change his views before it's all over. He often does.

I was reading E. W. Howe's monthly and I notice where he states "People have engaged in revolt after revolt, but have never yet revolted against their own shiftlessness. If people were less shiftless they might easily accomplish many of the reforms they are clamoring for."

I note where a bulletin from one of the State Agricultural Colleges said, "If you want to be pretty, eat fruit and vegetables." Now I have no desire to get into a controversy with the State Agricultural College but I can't possibly let such a brazen statement get by, for I have been eating fruit and vegetables for upwards of sixty-five years and look at me.

I wonder if they will turn around McKinley's campaign when he had the emblem which went over so good, namely "The Full Dinner Pail." I wonder if anybody will think of using this idea and change it around to "filling the pail" with "something else" on the way home.

Since Cal won't wear his cowboy suit much this summer I don't suppose the movies will turn out so many good comedies as they did last summer.

Life must be pretty darn dull in those families where the husband and wife agree on everything.

We hope we never get interested enough to want to see the north pole.

Those folks who enjoy a red hot political campaign will realize their hearts fondest desire this year. The East which claims both men will sit back and watch with interest the outcome. It's sure thing for the East.

The news leaks out that two young beautiful things minus stockings and numerous other wearing apparel broke up a hot political argument among a group of old blokes in a private room just before the convention opened at Houston. You can't blame 'em.

Death M. L. Pardo Recalls Aid in Mine Disaster

The death here recently of M. L. Pardo brought to the memory of Editor Cooke of the Rockdale Reporter a heroic service rendered by the late minister on the occasion of a mine disaster near Rockdale. Here is the comment by Mr. Cooke published in his column in the Reporter:

The death in Cameron last week of Rev. M. L. Pardo, well-known Baptist minister and missionary, was received with regret by many friends in Rockdale and brought to the memory of Reporterman one of the most tragic incidents of his newspaper experience. We refer to the Vogel-Lorenz lignite mine disaster, in which eight Mexican miners were trapped in the mine by a waterspout, seven of whom were rescued alive after a full week's hard work by a small army of volunteer laborers.

The catastrophe occurred about noon, Thursday, October 16, 1913, following a torrential rainfall of more than six inches. The "workings" of the mine led out under and beyond a small creek which was turned into a raging torrent by the unprecedented rainfall. The bottom of this creek fell in and the mine was flooded in one direction and dammed up with mud and residue in the other direction. Eight of the thirty-odd Mexican miners underground were caught behind this dam, out in the far workings of the mine with no shaft thru which they might be reached. Seven of these men were rescued after six days and nights of constant labor, and it was during these six days that the character and leadership of Rev. Pardo was brought under test.

Pardo at that time was the Baptist missionary to the Mexicans in the several mining camps near Rockdale. He wielded a wonderful influence over his charges at all times, but during these six days his ability as a leader reached its height.

Under the forceful leadership of Mayor H. C. Meyer, himself a mine owner and operator on a neighboring tract, the work of rescue was accurately planned and quickly started. It was developed that a portion of the mine was not flooded and by the use of surveyor's instruments a point was determined where a shaft might be sunk and be most apt to reach the imprisoned men who were naturally expected to seek the highest point in the mine to await rescue.

How that work proceeded is a matter of history, as is also the resulting rescue of seven of the men alive, though so weak from hunger they could not walk. It took six days and nights of constant pick and shovel and dynamite work to sink the shaft the necessary 65 feet, and so accurate was the survey made by Surveyor Bruce Gentry that the shaft penetrated the chamber in which the men were imprisoned and they were soon brought to the surface.

"All that is a matter of history," said H. C. Meyer to Reporterman Monday in speaking of Pardo's death, "but the general public does not know how valuable were the services of Bro. Pardo in that rescue work. He remained on the scene constantly, acting as interpreter, urging on the workmen, cheering up the relatives and friends of the victims, keeping them hopeful, contented and in good humor, supporting them as becomes the leadership of a man of God willing to put his shoulder to the wheel in things material as well as spiritual. I know it to be a fact that during the six days and nights of rescue work Bro. Pardo slept less than ten hours. We had the complete co-operation of all mine operators, workers and the citizenship of Rockdale, but in my opinion the work of no man was so valuable in that disaster as that of Pardo."

Reporterman was on the scene when the men were brought to the surface, and he will never forget the prayer of thanksgiving offered by Rev. Pardo at that time. It seemed that every Mexican from every mining camp in the district was present that night about nine o'clock. They were all restless and excited, but Pardo quieted them in a moment, and every man of them bared and bowed his head while this man of God offered up the most fervent prayer we ever heard. Reporterman did not understand a word of the Spanish language at that time, but he understood the radiance that lit up the swarthy features of the preacher, and he understood the inflections and intonations of his voice as he swayed his charges with his prayer of thanksgiving.

And when it was all over Pardo and Meyer and Bullock and Sam Taylor Theo Walter and a dozen or so others and Bruce Gentry and Gus Vogel and Theo Walter and a dozen or so others went home and got some sleep.

Schiller-Massey

Miss Ruby Schiller became the bride of Hardy Massey Tuesday morning, August 23, 1928 at 9:30 o'clock at the Episcopal Manse, Rev. J. P. Love speaking the impressive ceremony.

The bride wore a tailored model of silk and a white felt hat. She was accompanied to the altar by Miss Sammie Lee Koepf.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Massey left for San Antonio and Houston. Upon their return they will make their home in Austin where Mr. Massey is clerk for the S. & P. railroad.

The bride is a niece of Mrs. M. W. Price and has made her home here with her aunt since beginning school in Cameron.

There is one admirable quality about Governor Smith. That is, stand by old friends. Tammany opened the way to his political career and he naturally feels grateful as he showed in his recent Fourth of July address. Tammany may have many of the admirable qualities attributed to it by the governor, still, it is my guess that if he should capture the country next fall, it would be in spite of Tammany, not because of it. I can hear a lot of fellows saying now "why bring that up."

Suffers Injury

Wilbert Morgan of Cameron suffered a very painful injury Thursday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock when he fell 15 feet from a platform at the Yarrleton Gin. In falling he struck a protruding nail which cut the large artery of his right leg and would probably have led to death before medical aid reached him had it not been for R. L. Batte, owner of the gin, who promptly applied a tourniquet, until a doctor could be summoned. Morgan is resting nicely at his home today.

Arrested In Waco

Pearl Toms was arrested by officers in Waco Friday, charged with the theft of 35 hides that were taken from the Slaughter House, Thursday night. John Horzik and Charlie Worcester, owners of the hides, identified them. Charges were filed against Toms but an accomplice in the theft is still at large. Toms will be returned to Cameron from the McClellan county jail Saturday afternoon.

Enterprising citizens. They take their responsibilities seriously. They realize that at any minute of the day or night some home, some store, some factory, some school or some church will push an electric button and demand electric service for an emergency. They must be ready. Power must be there to meet that demand.

That is their life. In making this power possible they get their greatest thrill. They accept their work as a great human service, and perform each task accordingly.

Enterprise makes this possible. These men and women of the Texas Power & Light Company have a definite goal. They are industrious. They are proud of the work they do.

Owner Drives His Car Across Nation In 76 Hour Trip

H. M. Fenwick Beats Fastest Trains Between Los Angeles and New York by Seven Hours

Across the continent by automobile in 76 hours and 13 minutes.

This is not a mark set in a professional attempt to make a new record, but the astonishing feat of a tool salesman who found it necessary for business reasons to drive his own car from Los Angeles to New York in the fastest possible time.

Racing across country in specially equipped cars, under special police escort and under the most favorable conditions for the sole purpose of "beating time" is now a thing of the past, for Harold M. Fenwick of Philadelphia has established a new record for an owner-driven motor car.

Fenwick was certain his Dodge Brothers Victory Six car, with a mileage of 12,487 miles and which he had driven to the west coast, could turn right around and take him to New York hours ahead of the fastest train schedule. Sharing this idea was his companion, G. W. Brinck. The two shook hands and were officially checked out of Los Angeles at 7:47 P. M. August 1 on their way east.

Hair raising experiences intervened until they were officially checked in New York at three o'clock the morning of August 5, just 76 hours and 13 minutes later, allowing for the differences in time between the two cities. They had bested the fastest trains by more than seven hours. Their speedometer reading showed they had negotiated 3272 miles at an average speed of 43 miles an hour. It was then they sat down to write the Dodge Brothers factory their experiences.

Days of preparation and special equipment for cars usually making this run meant nothing to them. Their car was ready as it stood, and were it not for a three hour delay in Arizona resulting from a wreck on a sharp curve, they would have broken coast to coast records by a wide margin. Up and down mountain roads, across deserts, through mud and rain and in city traffic, the Victory engine never faltered, their report stated.

The drivers had their narrow escape from death in Arizona when they were forced off a mountain road in a collision with an approaching car. Surveying their plight, the men, mainjured, agreed that the two walled Victory body saved their lives. Damage consisted of a caved in body, broken windshield, bent front axle and steering gear, a demolished wheel, and jammed front brakes. They were pulled out on the highway and then proceeded under their own power to Kingman, Arizona, where emergency repairs were quickly made by a Dodge dealer without replacement of any parts. A sledge hammer corrected most of the damage. The stop cost them three hours in time.

In Kansas, the drivers were again delayed by flooded roads, and it was necessary to take a ninety mile detour around Salina. At one time it rained so hard that they disconnected the fan to keep it from throwing water over the engine. Stops were made six times enroute for changing and repairing tires. Gasoline average was 16 miles to the gallon.

The route of the trip included Barstow, California; Flagstaff, Arizona; Albuquerque, New Mexico; Trinidad, Colorado; Dodge City, Kansas. Kansas City, St. Louis, Indianapolis, Columbus, Wheeling, Cumberland, Maryland; Philadelphia and New York.

"We gave her the gun all the way and put our faith in the car," said Fenwick. "Pulling into Topeka was a relief, for then we had paved roads to New York. We owe our lives to the body construction of the Victory Six—in our opinion the finest car in America regardless of price."

Actual figures audited here recently, showed that more than 89 per cent of Baylor's income is derived from students' tuition and fees, a dangerous financial situation. Campaign money will be used for erasure of that indebtedness and to create additional endowment. Dallas and Waco will build new structures.

Please Note the Recent Important Changes.

Those who have at some time studied Byrne Simplified Shorthand or Byrne Practical Bookkeeping, or both, and those that have not but desire to enter a Commercial College will please note: All royalty contracts with other schools heretofore teaching my systems have been closed out so as to make the Byrne Commercial College of Dallas, Texas, which I own and control, the only commercial school in Texas now permitted to teach the Famous Byrne Simplified Shorthand and Byrne Practical Bookkeeping. You are, no doubt asked from time to time to recommend a commercial school and if you have studied these systems, you realize their advantages in that they can be mastered in half the time and at half the cost of others.

May I mail you a catalogue of the Byrne Commercial College that you may better realize what a large and splendid school I am building in Dallas—The City of Employment.

Have you studied either Byrne Simplified Shorthand or the Byrne Practical Bookkeeping?

Kindly give the names and addresses of young people likely to be interested in a business education in the near future.

Baylor University Is In Dire Need; Drive Is On For Funds

Waco, Texas, Sept. 25.—Occupying possibly the 18 most important positions of the entire Greater Baylor University campaign, district chairman, chosen from the leading Baptists and Baylor alumni of the state, are laying definite programs of effort to promote the drive for $2,000,000 in the state at large.

Another district chairman has begun organization, following the acceptances of Rev. W. O. Wright of Caldwell to serve as leader of district 3. He is prominent in denominational work and stands high in Baptist activities, particularly in that section of Texas.

Baylor's cause is now a desperate appeal, according to state headquarters here. The oldest educational institution in Texas, Baylor, was founded and nurtured by Texas Baptists and its support depends on them, now.

OFFICERS

W. O. TRIGGS President
JEFFERSON B. WHITE Editor and ManagerTHE REPUBLICAN PARTY
IN INDIANA

In Indiana Governor Ed Jackson, who escaped from indictment by pleading the statute of limitations, was with difficulty restrained from addressing the recent Republican State Convention. He has since spoken for Mr. Hoover, Walter Bossert, former Grand Dragon, has just addressed a women's Republican organization. Mr. Bossert and Joseph M. Huffington, also a leading Klan official, were prominent in naming a slate at the convention. The Anti-Saloon League forces under Supt. E. S. Shumaker—just resentenced to sixty days in jail and a $250 fine—were equally prominent. Geo. V. Coffin, indicted with Governor Jackson and a political partner of D. C. Stephenson of the Klan, now in jail for life, is acting as Republican District chairman. Ralph E. Updike, accused of offering the Indianapolis Postmastership to a Stephenson nominee in return for Klan support, is running for Congress. Senator Jim Watson's machine is actively at work.

A savory crowd, these Indians who are now shouting for Hoover, harmony and forgetfulness. In the background is the remnant of the old Klan-Anti-Saloon League combination, which has given Indiana the harshest and the most poorly enforced dry laws in the Union. Indianapolis is thoroughly wet. Many striking miners have turned to bootlegging or moonshining. Recent investigators report that the saloon is moving from Indiana cities into the Indiana countryside and that city dwellers drive out in their cars to get liquor. The whole combination some of Mr. Hoover's friends say, is "leading Hoover down."

The Chicago Tribune, without raising the question of Mr. Hoover's interests, courageously urges Indiana Republicans to reject the so-called "compromise" State ticket just named by this delightful crowd. "Compromise enables the combination of pretentious virtue and political scoundrelism to run awhile before the wind." Decent citizens, says the Tribune, will resist it. "Their vote of protest will be given the Democratic ticket, headed by Dailev for Governor."—New York World.

Class Party

The Fidelis Class of the Baptist Sunday School gave a party on the church lawn Tuesday night. A contest between the groups of the class was concluded last week and the group with Miss Bernice McLerran as captain was victorious over the group with Miss Rosa Radtke as captain. The losing group was hostess to the winning side.

Miss Florence Hobson was in charge of the entertainment and led the group in a school party, significant of the approaching school term. At recess the students were served fruit punch and cake squares. Misses Rosa Radtke and Mary Louise Elliott served the guests.

Besides the Fidelis Class other guests were: members of the Borean Class and Misses Katherine Lovick and Essie McCall and Lyons McCall and Doyle Mayfield of Tusa, Okla.

VARIOUS PLANS TO STEAL TIME AND MONEY FROM THE UNWARY

Bankers Association Official Tells How Young People
Are Fleeced in "Hokum Pokum" Movie Schemes—
The Investor Loses Savings by Listening to Messrs. Slick and Smooth.

By W. R. MOREHOUSE

Public Relations Commission, American Bankers Association

THE fabulous salaries paid stars of the first magnitude, and the publicity of the "movies" naturally create longing in the breasts of thousands of our young Americans to get into motion pictures. Because so many are ready to leave home, and risk everything on a fling at motion pictures, unscrupulous persons have devised ways of fleecing these ambitious young people out of their savings. "Hokum-pokum" schemes of various kinds are used with great success. Fake courses in the art of acting before the camera, fake courses on how to make-up, fake registration gags and screen tests, are among the schemes used to separate these thousands of young people from their cash.

The pilgrimage to the motion pictures centers by thousands of novices usually ends disastrously for the pilgrims. Naturally a few are successful, but only a very, very few, the ninety and nine meeting with disappointment. The truth is, the number of persons who seek to "break into" the movies exceed the number of available positions by one hundred to one, while in the realm of popular stars it is thousands to one.

Don't be misled by the promises of promoters of hokum-pokum schemes that there is room for all, because this last year over 100,000 young people knocked at the door for admission and were turned away because there was no room on the inside for them. Consult your banker or address the National Better Business Bureau, New York City, for information or advice regarding any enterprise that seeks to gain possession of your money. They will give disinterested counsel before it is too late.

Also let every investor approached by either Mr. Slick or Mr. Smooth with a proposition yielding big dividends remember that such assurances always spell financial danger ahead. To every investor who is lured into making investments, in other words perhaps just a little green and perhaps a little too easy, any offer coming from this source should be like a red flag warning to come to a complete stop.

Such investments as Mr. Slick or Mr. Smooth offer are too good to be true and therefore they are not true. Slick, Smooth and Company are not miracle workers although from their sales talk you would infer that they could make you rich as if by magic. No, they are not miracle workers—just slick and smooth.

The Estate Gog

Twenty-four "estates" representing 6½ billions of dollars have been used as bait to interest a lot of savers and finally bleed them of their savings. The scheme is built around a supposed search for the heirs to certain phantom estates. At all costs these heirs must be found. Every person who can by any hook or crook, figure it out that he is in anyway related to the deceased are urged by some shady lawyer or genealogist to send in their names and their life history.

Soon they receive glad tidings telling them that their family tree can be traced back to the deceased, in fact, they are a direct descendant and an heir at law.

Like fake raffles everybody who responds to the search is found to be a winner—in other words an "heir." Here is where the rainbow chaser gets trimmed. Before his claim to the mythical thousands can be pressed so as to insure success a demand is made on him to advance attorney's fees and pay the expense of tracing through his genealogy.

VICTORY FOR DEMOCRACY
SAYS TOM CONNALLYMARLIN CONGRESSMAN MODEST IN STATEMENT ON NOMINATION

Congressman Tom Connally, who defeated Senator Earle B. Mayfield for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator in Saturday's run-off primary election, Sunday gave out the following statement:

"On the face of incomplete returns it appears that the Democracy of Texas has selected me as its candidate for United States Senator by a majority in excess of 50,000. For the honor which the nomination confers and the confidence reposed in me by the Democrats of the great State of Texas, I am grateful beyond the power of expression. I do not arrogate to myself the credit for the victory. The result of the primary was a triumph of the fundamentals of Democracy represented by the hosts who supported my candidacy. It was a triumph of constitutional government. It was a triumph of government by all of the people and for all of the people. It signifies that the people of Texas are determined that selfish interests shall control neither the politics of Texas nor legislation in Washington."

"My campaign was based on public issues and public records. I have su-

Not surmising that he is being trapped and seeing only the big inheritance which he believed to believe he will soon receive, he draws the amount necessary from his savings account and sends it on, not knowing he is actually throwing it away. But he is for like thousands and thousands of other rainbow chasers, he parts with it for the last time.

So-called estate schemes which have produced thousands of "heirs" and at preme confidence in the judgment of the people when they know all the facts. Free government is dependent on the wisdom and the patriotism of the people. Enlightened opinion is the greatest force in America today. The appeal of my friends and myself to that opinion was not in vain.

"The national Democracy will soon begin its campaign. As the nominee for United States Senator I stand squarely on the platform of our party. I shall assist in the redemption of its pledges to the American people. Its promise to the farmer must be kept. Its promise for law enforcement must be redeemed. To our nominees, Governor Smith and Senator Robinson I shall give my loyal support in the fall campaign. Democracy is entitled to a splendid triumph."

"To the army of my loyal friends throughout the State who gave me their active support and unbounded assistance, I extend my deep and sincere gratitude. Without their untiring efforts my candidacy could not have been presented to the people. To the Democracy of Texas I pledged whatever ability I possess and the utmost fidelity to the service of the people of Texas and to my country."

Practical assurance is given that a cheese factory is to be located in Camerton soon. This industry would give specific encouragement to dairymen, increasing the market for milk and bringing much needed by-income to the farm. This editor recently traveled in a dozen South Texas counties and there found many such industries as tend to encourage poultry raising, dairy cattle and produce generally. In sections visited, note was made that in every case where farmers had other means of income, conditions of prosperity obtain. Certainly the establishment of a cheese factory in Camerton is a step in the direction of independence from the slavery of cotton.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Menthosulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to hery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Menthosulphur at any drug store.

Miss Fisher Returns From Interesting Trip

Miss Vera Fisher has returned from an overland tour to Grand Canyon, Arizona where she was accompanied by her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Westbrook of Houston. They visited the Elephant Butte Dam, Petrified Forest, Fifty Old Lava Flow, Cliff Dwellings, Painted Desert and Grand Canyon. Each evening of their stay they were entertained by the Hopi Indians with their 'Dance for Rain.' Miss Fisher says that she has seen some beautiful pictures of the Canyon but none can compare with the beautiful natural colors which change each minute of the day. On their way home they visited the Bottomless Lakes and stopped at Brawnsfield with friends and relatives. Miss Fisher reports a very pleasant stay in Old Mexico also. She is now visiting friends and relatives in Houston.

A good phrase, but not sufficiently inclusive. "One hundred per cent Christian" is better. In the latter case we include all men in our program. We demand religious and political liberty, not for ourselves alone, but for all men; no matter what their race or color, or creed. A one hundred per cent Christian will not preach hatred or intolerance. We are now living in the day of great opportunity and in the most wonderful country on earth.

Let us be on the square; on the level. Let us concede to every man the same rights and privileges that we claim for ourselves. Let us "do good unto all men, but more especially to those who are of the household of faith."

PAUL PREACHING IN THESSALONICA AND BERECA

LESSON TEXT—Acts 17:1-15; 1 Thess. 5:12-23; Romans 15:18-20
GOLDEN TEXT—The entrance of the words giveth light.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Finds New Friends and Foes.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul Finds New Friends and Foes.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul's Use of the Scriptures.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul, Organizer of Churches.

I. Preaching in Thessalonica (Acts 17:1-10).

His method (vv. 1, 2). He observed the divine order, "to the Jew first," but whenever they proved themselves unworthy he turned to the Gentiles. He went out on the Sabbath day so as to find them assembled together.

2. His message (v. 3). It was that Jesus is the Christ. In order to prove that Jesus is the Christ, he expounded unto them the Scriptures. Concerning Christ he set forth three propositions:

(1) "That Christ must needs have suffered" (v. 3).

The suffering Christ was not welcomed by the Jews (Isa. 53). They were looking for a Messiah of a different type.

(2) "Risen from the dead" (v. 3). This He proved by the Scriptures. The resurrection of Christ and the bodily resurrection of believers need sound and practical exposition today.

(3) "That this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ."

He declared that the historic Jesus whom he had proclaimed had suffered and risen from the dead, therefore He is the predicted Messiah.

3. The attitude of the Jews toward his preaching (vv. 4-10).

While some Jews believed and many Greeks, the envy of certain Jews was so aroused at Paul's success that they gathered together the worthless fellows of the town and created a riot. They turned the preaching of Paul into a specious lie. He preached the kingdom of Jesus (v. 7). Jesus is most assuredly coming to reign on this earth.

II. What He Preached at Thessalonica (1 Thess. 5:13-20).

He corrected certain doctrinal errors which had crept into the church.

1. They were not to sorrow unduly (v. 13).

Because they failed to understand the meaning of Paul's preaching concerning the coming of the Lord they were indulging in excessive sorrow. They seemed to think that their loved ones who had died would miss the blessings and glory connected with the return of the Lord.

2. The events associated with the Lord's coming (vv. 13-18).

In this section he gives the reasons why they were not to allow themselves to be overwhelmed with grief.

(1) The departed saints will come back when Jesus comes (v. 14).

Immediately following the death of believers their spirits go to be with the Lord where they remain in the state of blessedness until the Lord shall return to this earth, bringing them with Him.

(2) The bodies of the dead in Christ shall come from the grave (v. 16).

When the Lord comes there will be a real resurrection of the dead in Christ, before the change of the bodies of living believers.

(3) Living believers will be caught up together with those who have been resurrected (v. 17).

3. The time of the Lord's coming is unknown (5:1-11). We are commanded to be ready, to watch.

III. Paul Preaching in Berea (Acts 17:10-15).

1. His method (v. 10). He entered the Jewish synagogue and preached Christ.

2. The reception of the Gospel by the Bereans (vv. 11, 12).

(1) They received the message gladly.

(2) They searched the Scriptures daily for the truthfulness of the message which they had heard.

3. The wicked action of the Jews (vv. 13-15).

Wicked Jews from Thessalonica followed the missionaries and stirred up the people against them, making it necessary for them again to flee.

IV. Paul's Manner of Preaching (Rom. 15:18-20).

Wherever he went in the Gentile world he preached salvation through faith in Christ. God accompanied his ministry with mighty signs and wonders, with the object of making the Gentiles obedient to the Gospel. Paul's aim was to preach in new fields, so as not to build on the foundation of another.

Jesus and Preaching

Jesus chose preaching as the method of extending the knowledge of Himself throughout the world. He taught His truth to a few men, and then He said, "Now go and tell that truth to other men."—Phillips Brooks.

At the Door

"Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: If any man hear My voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me."—Rev. 3:20.

Bankston Family Reunion At Wayside

Mrs. Dodd, nee Bankston of Sand Grove celebrated her 77th birthday Sunday, August 26th at Wayside Inn near Cameron. Mrs. Dodd was born in Mississippi but came to Texas in 1869 and has since lived in Milam and Burleson counties with the exception of eight years. Her first marriage was to Berin Williams and after his death she married the late J. R. Dodd. She has four children: John C. and Charles Williams of Milam and Mesdames W. L. Booth of Hernimleigh and E. F. Ferguson of Lexington; eighteen grand and five great grandchildren. About 200 or more of her friends and relatives brought well filled baskets and dinner was served at noon. Rev. Buck Hillen of Crosbyton, a nephew by marriage of Mrs. Dodd preached at eleven and three o'clock.

This is the second celebration this family has held at Wayside, the first being held last year with 75 in attendance. It was agreed that on each 4th Sunday in August a similar gathering would be held at Wayside, celebrating her anniversary.

Among the friends and relatives were the following ladies and gentlemen whose ages run from sixty to eighty-three: Mesdames Angelina Koff, C. J. Middleton, Martha Hairston, Rockdale, Fannie Ryan, Bryan, Nannie Meadows, Joe James, M. E. Harrell, J. M. Bankston, Milam; R. Donaho, Christian; Messrs. Joe James, Clark Price, James and Geo. Bankston, Rockdale; Rev. M. L. Osborn, Stamford and W. T. Hurt, Lexington. Among other guests were County Commissioner Dick Hairston, Rockdale; Hon. H. E. Graham, representative two terms from Milam County and Judges Jeff T. Kemp and John Watson of Cameron.

CRACKLINGS

We sometimes think we are advancing but most of these wonderful new theories about free love advocated so strongly today and early marriages which the younger generation have discovered, were in the height of fashion among the savages long before the dawn of self expression.

It's not that first lie the man tells the lady that costs the man so much effort—it's the upkeep.

I notice where a society has been forced to prevent the Bible from being scoffed at in colleges. The Bible has been scoffed at for about two thousand years, both in and out of colleges and still remains the international best seller. So I say, why worry.

I notice where a paper says: "Why all this fuss about Prohibition?" The Wets say there is more liquor sold now than before Prohibition. The Drys say there is less. That is just what both wanted. So why the disturbance.

When people grow tired of home life, they take to touring in order to learn what good comfort really is.

Interesting Information: Children have measles and grown ups have politics.

Only one candidate for governor so far has said he is for the Amendment, but the others will get in line quickly.

I wonder if it would be wise to think this fact over before voting next fall. At this time there is approximately one official to every ten citizens in the United States.

Seeing falsely is worse than blindness, and speaking falsely than silence.—Rusk.

I am not yet a success except as an assembler of tools," says Mr. Ford. "My real work remains to be done." Considering all that he has done and what it has brought him, looks as if Mr. Ford's next job will be a hum-dinger.

Some women measure their husband's devotion by the amount of gasoline they leave in the car.

What Next?
I was reading a bulletin from the Emporia Teachers' College which suggested that a course be given in golf—not for those who wish to practice golf, but for those who wish to teach it. The reason being that so many people now have country clubs and golf courses that golf will soon become a course in the public schools and the teacher should know how to teach it.
What a far cry this is from the old days when the only adult occupation for our beloved ancestors one generation ago, was pitching horseshoes, running a quarter horse, licking the marshall and scandalizing the preacher. How sophisticated we have become. Indeed and in truth, the old order changeth. What would grandpa say if he caught his little lispng darling learning to be a golf pro.

AIR CLEANER HELPS CHEVROLET EFFICIENCY REDUCING WEAR ON PARTS

Do you know that the air cleaner on automobiles removes the dust from the air making it purer than that which you breathe? For instance the air cleaner on a Chevrolet reduces the wear on certain moving parts to 17 times less than on cars not equipped with an air cleaner.

Were it not for the air cleaner dust would enter the engine, form on the cylinder walls and soon become thoroughly mixed with the lubricating oil. Without an air cleaner the inevitable result would be formation of a grinding compound which, besides attacking the pistons, rings and cylinder walls, would be driven remorselessly into the bearings and other working parts.

Quite often the dust on a good road cannot be seen but it is there just the same. Motor car wheels constantly grind off fine particles of road material which are dispersed through the air. These fine particles viewed under a microscope bear a striking resemblance to a valve grinding compound.

If it were not for the air cleaner, dust and sand would enter the carburetor—even in city driving—causing wear on cylinders, rings and pistons.

Analysis of almost any carbon deposit taken from the average engine not air cleaner equipped shows that it contains a considerable amount of hard foreign matter that must have been drawn in through the carburetor. This causes damage throughout the engine, lowering its performance, shortening its life and causing unnecessary repair costs.

The Chevrolet air cleaner is made entirely of metal—has no moving parts—requires no attention. It will last for the lifetime of the car.

THOUSANDS CANNOT TAKE ASPIRIN

The discovery a few years ago of a pain relief with exhaustive tests by thousands of physicians, dentists and nurses proved it to be truly wonderful, was indeed a great blessing to sufferers of headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, neuritis, period pains. During the great flu epidemic it was conclusively found thousands could not take aspirin, acetanilid or compounds containing these.

The remarkable new discovery called A-Vol does not contain aspirin, acetanilid or any heart depressants. It is absolutely harmless to young or old. It stops pain in five minutes and instead of leaving you feeling loggy, it actually pepes you up.

If you have severe headache, pains of any kind, you owe it to yourself to try this remarkable new scientific discovery. A tube of twelve tablets at your druggists costs but a few cents. Just ask for A-Vol—you will be delighted.

PAIN IN SIDE

Black-Draught Brought Relief and Healed Indigestion.

"For several years I suffered with indigestion," says Mr. W. M. Harger, of Crystal, W. Va. "I had a pain in my right side, which rarely ever left me. At times, I would have headache so bad, I would have to leave my work. Black-Draught was recommended to me by a friend and so I began taking it. Before very long I was feeling much better. I kept up the medicine for some time, and my improvement was so great, I felt better than I had felt in years. The pain in my side left me, and the sour stomach quit altogether."

Chevrolet Salesmen Attend 72 Car Club Meeting in Houston

Joe Casey and John Muse of the Coleman Chevrolet Company, who have won distinction as Chevrolet salesmen with promotion to membership in the 72 car Club, have just returned from Houston where they attended the banquet tendered the salesmen of this rank in South Texas, a district composed of 96 counties.

Of the four hundred sixty Retail Salesmen employed by Chevrolet Dealers in the ninety-six counties of South Texas, one hundred three qualified during the past year, for membership in the Chevrolet Seventy-Two Car Club which is a national honor organization made up of leading salesmen selling seventy-two or more Chevrolets in a year's time.

The members of this club in Zone Thirty were guests of the Chevrolet Motor Company of Texas at a meeting and banquet held in the Rice Hotel, Houston, Wednesday, August 22.

The day's program, full of interest and activity, opened at nine A. M. with a business meeting in which the officers of the club for the ensuing year were installed and short addresses made by Mr. C. S. Hill, President of the club and by Mr. George Kavanaugh of Houston, Zone Sales Manager; Mr. R. H. Grant of Detroit, Vice President of the Chevrolet Motor Company; Mr. E. K. Purchase of Dallas, Regional Sales Promotion Manager; and Mr. H. E. Allen of Houston, Zone Sales Promotion Manager.

The business session was closed with the presentation of favors awarded the members of the Seventy-Two Car Club by the Chevrolet Motor Company as a token of appreciation of the excellent records made by the members of the club.

The business session was followed by a brief inspection of the Zone Thirty Offices and Parts Depot at Polk and Dowling Streets, where different phases of the Zone Office activities were explained.

Luncheon was served on board the excursion boat, Nicholas, which was chartered by the Chevrolet Motor Company for a cruise down the Houston Ship Channel, giving the guests an interesting view of the many industries located on the bank of the Channel.

The club was entertained with music and competitive games on board the boat and the twenty-seven winners were awarded valuable prizes for federal taxes collected last year last in the first year of the Coolidge Administration.

It is not economy to refuse to make necessary expenditures to provide facilities for the transaction of government business, he said, pointing out that scarcely a city in the country has adequate quarters for federal business at the present time.

Anticipating Republican misrepresentation of the Democratic party's position on the tariff, Governor Smith declared:

No Business Upheaval

"The Democratic party does not and under my leadership will not advocate any sudden or drastic revolution in our economic system which would cause business upheaval or popular distress."

"The Democratic party stands squarely for the maintenance of legitimate business and a high standard of wages for American labor."

"Pay no attention to the Republican propaganda and accept my assurance as the leader of our party that Democratic tariff legislation will be honest," he declared. "It will play no favorites. It will do justice to every element in the nation."

He said foreign policy has its roots in the approval of the majority of the people and that he regarded it as a paramount duty to keep alive the interest of the people in questions of foreign policy and to advise the electorate as to facts. He promised to stress the necessity for restoration of cordial relations with Latin-America.

The Republican administration has signally failed in its endeavor to remove the causes of war, he continued.

"I pledge myself to a resumption of a real endeavor to make the outlawry of war effective by removing its causes and to substitute the methods of conciliation, conference, arbitration, and judicial determination," he declared.

The President has two duties with respect to the prohibition question, he said.

"The first is embodied in his oath of office," he went on. "If with one hand on the Bible and the other hand reaching up to Heaven, I promise the people of this country that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States and to the best of my ability preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States," you may be sure that I shall live up to that oath to the last degree.

"I shall to the very limit execute the pledge of our platform to make an honest endeavor to enforce the 18th amendment and all other provisions of the Federal Constitution and all laws enacted pursuant thereto."

The Governor promised "ruthlessly to stamp out" the present corruption in prohibition enforcement.

"Such conditions cannot and will not exist under any administration presided over by me," he asserted.

Continuing, he said: "The second constitutional duty imposed upon the President is to recommend to the Congress such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient."

"I shall advise the Congress in accordance with my constitutional duty of whatever changes I deem necessary and expedient. It will then be for the people and the representatives in the national and state legislature to determine whether these changes shall be made."

"I believe in temperance," he continued. "We have not achieved temperance under the present system. The mothers and fathers of young men and women throughout this land know the anxiety and worry which has been brought to them by their children's use of liquor in a way which was unknown before prohibition. I believe in reverence for law. Today disregard of the prohibition laws is in insidiously sapping respect for all law. I raise, therefore, what I profoundly believe to be a great moral issue involving the righteousness of our national conduct and the protection of our children's morals."

The remedy is to be found in the fearless application of Jeffersonian principles, he continued, to allow for different habits and customs of different parts of the country.

"Some immediate relief would come from an amendment to the Volstead law giving a scientific definition of the alcoholic content of an intoxicating beverage," he said. "The present definition is admittedly inaccurate and unscientific. Each state would then be allowed to fix its own standard of alcoholic content, subject always to the proviso that that standard could not exceed the maximum fixed by the Congress."

"I believe, moreover, that there should be submitted to the people the question of some change in the provisions of the 18th amendment. Certainly, no one foresaw when the amendment was ratified the conditions which exist today of bootlegging, corruption and open violation of the law in all parts of the country. The people themselves should, after this eight years of trial, be permitted to say whether existing conditions should be rectified. I personally believe in an amendment to the 18th amendment which would give to each individual state itself only after approval by a referendum popular vote of its people the right wholly within its borders to import, manufacture or cause to be manufactured and sell alcoholic beverages, the sale to be made only by the state itself and not for consumption in any public place."

"Our Canadian neighbors," he said, "have gone far in this manner to solve this problem by the method of sale made by the state itself and not by private individuals."

Scion Won't Return

"There is no question here of the return of the scion. When I stated that the scion 'is and ought to be a dearest institution in this country' I meant it. I mean it today. I will never advocate or approve any law which directly or indirectly permits the return of the scion."

"This country cannot be a healthy, strong, genuine body if one of its members, so fundamentally important as agriculture, is sick almost to the point of economic death," said Governor Smith, taking up the subject of farm relief.

The Republican administration has made many promises of legislation to aid the farmer, but has kept none of them, he continued.

"The tariff is ineffective on commodities of which there is exportable surplus without controlled sale of the surplus," said Governor Smith. "Our platform points the way to make the tariff effective for crops of which we produce a surplus."

"Co-operative, co-ordinated marketing and warehousing of surplus farm products is essential just as co-ordinated, co-operative control of the flow of capital was found necessary to the regulation of our country's finances."

"Our platform declares for the development of co-operative marketing and an earnest endeavor to solve the problem of the distribution of the cost of dealing with crop surpluses over the marketed unit of the crop whose producers are benefited by such assistance. Only the mechanics remain to be devised. I propose to substitute action for inaction and friendliness for hostility. In my administration of the government of my state, whenever I was confronted with a problem of this character, I called into conference those best equipped on the particular subject in hand. I shall follow that course with regard to agriculture. Farmers and farm leaders with such constructive aid as will come from sound economists and fair-minded leaders of finance and business must work out the details. There are varying plans for the attainment of the end which is to be accomplished. Such plans should be subjected at once to searching, able and fair-minded analysis, because the interests of all require that the solution shall be economically sound."

Will Call Conference

Governor Smith then promised to summon an agricultural conference to work out the solution, saying:

"If I am elected, I shall immediately after election ask leaders of the type I have named, irrespective of party, to enter upon this task. I shall join with them in the discharge of their duties during the coming winter and present to Congress immediately upon its convening the solution recommended by the body of men best fitted to render this signal service to the nation. I shall support the activities of this body until a satisfactory law is placed upon the statute books."

On the subject of transportation Governor Smith said he believed in encouraging the construction and use of modern highways to carry the short haul of small bulk commodities and to aid in marketing farm products.

Also of great importance, he said, is the development of transportation by our waterways, which are still in a highly undeveloped state.

Linked with waterways development is the control of floods, the governor said. He declared that the two Republican administrations had worked for the Mississippi flood of last year instead of taking leadership in this important work.

"The money actually appropriated for flood relief is too small to make even a start," Governor Smith asserted. "Too much time has been spent in squabbling over who shall pay the bill."

Governor Smith pledged himself to a progressive, liberal conservation policy based upon the same principles to which I have given my support in the State of New York," and to fight against selfish aggression "wherever it appears and irrespective of whom it may involve."

"The sources of water power must remain forever under public ownership and control," he said.

Benefits growing from the development of water power as an incident to the regulation of the Colorado River should be "equitably distributed among the states having right of ownership," Governor Smith declared.

It would be the policy of his administration to develop a method of operation for Muscle Shoals which would reclaim for the government some fair revenue, from the enormous expenditure already made, he said.

Red tape and autocratic bureaucracy should be brushed aside in caring for veterans in distress, Governor Smith said. Likewise, he said he would continue his sympathetic interest in the advancement of progressive legislation for working men and women, the proper care of maternity, infancy and childhood, and the encouragement of activities which advance public health.

His Labor Policy

Turning to the labor question, Governor Smith said:

"The reasonable contentment of those who toil with the conditions under which they live and work is an essential basis of the nation's well-being. The welfare of our country, therefore demands governmental concern for the legitimate interest of labor."

In conclusion the governor said in part:

"I pledge a complete devotion to the welfare of our country and our people. I place that welfare above every other consideration and I am satisfied that our party is in a position to promote it. To that end I here and now declare to my fellow countrymen, from one end of the United States to the other, that I will dedicate myself with all the power and energy that I possess, to the service of our great republic."

Troop One Boy Scouts Report Much Progress

Troop One, had its regular meeting Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock with the largest attendance it has had since its organization and had 26 present. The meeting opened with the repeating of the Scout laws. After a short business session, each patrol held a short session in which they selected a spokesman who gave a short talk on some line of scouting. Frank Hubert carried away first honors in representing the 'Hound' Patrol. Frank compared the ancient Greek Scouts of centuries ago with scouts of today.

Several boys took tests at this time. Giles Avriett Jr., is the fastest scout in sending the Semaphore Code in this troop and W. H. Shipp is the fastest in the tying of knots.

Troop One now has the full 32 members and one senior patrol leader, Ben Atkinson, Jr. Permission has been asked to organize one more patrol which will bring the number of the troop membership to 42. The Scout master of this troop feels "sorta like the hen with one chicken."

Thursday night the Scouts of Cameron will visit the New Hefley Theatre and see "Johnnie Hines in Around the World". Mr. Hefley is one of Cameron's Boy Scout boosters. Next Monday the troop leaves at seven p. m. on a "hungry" hike. The boys are busy now, training for the great Jamboree which takes place in the near future. More will be said of this soon.

RUN OFF ELECTION FOR COMMITTEEMEN SETTLES CONTESTS IN 5 BOXES

The unusual spectacle of run-off contests for executive committeemen in five precincts of the county was the feature of the August 25th election.

The run off contests was made necessary by reason of the writing of names on the ballot by voters where no names were printed for candidates. J. W. Garner has the unusual distinction of being elected to two places on the committee.

The following is the results:

Hanover	C. M. Pierce
Rockdale	J. W. Garner
Hamilton Chapel	John Scott
Bethlehem	J. W. Garner
San Gabriel	Ed Case
Conolly	Knox Conolly
Thorndale	W. B. Elliott
